U.S. CUTTER RESCUES CREW OF SEVENTEEN BEFORE SHIP SINKS

Norwegian Vessel in Distress for Some Hours in Atlantic Founders Soon After Aid Arrives—
Four Other Ships Take Part in Search for Ss. Bjerkli Off Nova Scotia

BOSTON, March 23 (P).—Coast Guard headquarters tonight reported a message from the cutter Chelan, said the Norwegian steamer Bjerkli sank at 7:50, P.M. Commander Lyndon Spenser said in his message the Chelan immediately headed for Boston with the seventeen rescued members of the crew of the Norwegian vessel. They were expected to reach their dock at the Navy Yard here, late Thursday.

The Chelan had been standing by the foundering Bjerkli after racing 200 miles to the rescue in response to a distress message from the steamer last night. The Bjerkli sank about 650 miles east of Boston.

The 235-foot steamer carried no regular operator and it was presumed by shore operators that distress signals for her were tapped out on an amateur outfit by one of the crew of seventeen.

OTHER SHIPS IN SEARCH
Four other ships searching for the Bjerkli when the Chelan and the City of Havre arrived were the Hamburg-American liner Hamburg, the City of Auckland, the Pennland and the Paris.

The Bjerkli, bound from Norfolk, Va., to Skagway, began sending out distress signals late yesterday, saying she was "taking water," but operators and officers on other ships were puzzled for a while because the signals were not sent in the regular SOS manner. It was several hours before the amateur on the Bjerkli identified his ship and gave her approximate position.

CHILD RESCUED FROM BEATINGS

Missionary Finds Indian Girl Being Thrashed to Drive Out "Evil Spirits"

WINNIPEG, March 23 (P).—Rescue of a six-year-old Indian girl from cruelty of her parents to drive out the "evil spirits" that crippled her was disclosed here today by United Church of Canada missionary headquarters.

Found by a missionary who visited a band of forty Indians about 175 miles north of Norway House, at the northern tip of Lake Winnipeg, the little girl has been removed to the Indian School at Brandon, Man., 150 miles west of here, where she is receiving her health and being educated.

The little girl is named Emily. She has been beaten cruelly and made to do all chores in an effort to drive out her "evil spirits."

GIVEN MEDICAL ATTENTION
Her parents were reported to have given her up gladly to the missionary, who sent her to Winnipeg and on to Brandon. She underwent operations at Brandon for her deformity.

Officers of the school report Emily is recovering rapidly. She has started to knit, make clothes and be educated. Specialists hope that she will some day be able to walk—not pull herself along by her hands in a half-crawl as she did in the Indian settlement.

Budget Speech Announces Levies on Chain Stores and Grain Elevators in Province

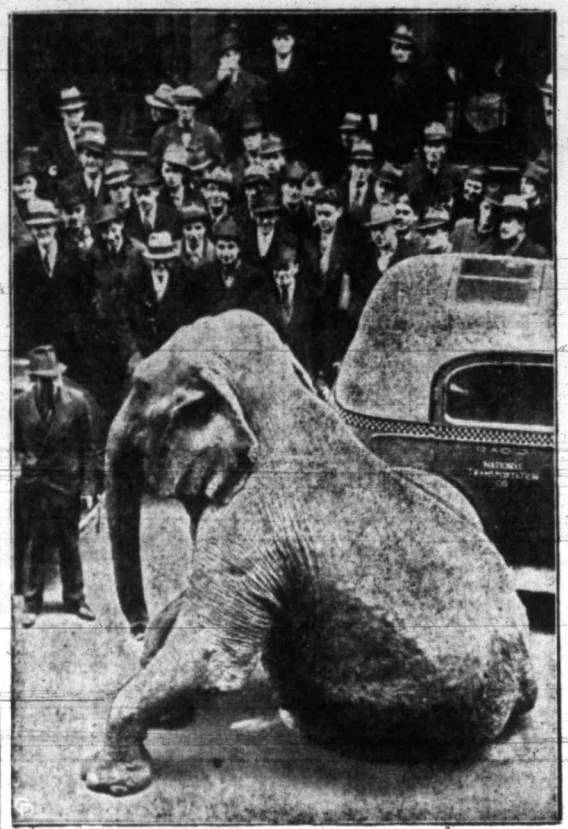

REGINA, Sask., March 23 (P).—The levying of corporation taxes on chain stores and grain elevators, estimated to net the Province increased revenues of $300,000 annually, was forecast in the budget brought down in the Saskatchewan Legislature today by Premier W. J. Patterson, Provincial Treasurer.

In addition increases in taxation will be levied on telegraph companies on the basis of offices in operation, and the present taxes on express companies will be increased. The sales or educational tax will be levied at the rate of 2 per cent on retail sales of all goods except a number of definite exemptions. Revenue from the tax, less the cost of administration, will be used solely for educational purposes.

Biggest Sit-Down Strike Yet

This elephant, a member of the circus troupe that performed in New York recently, suddenly decided to emulate workers in other walks of life, by calling a "sit-down strike" in the midst of traffic in mid-town Manhattan. The animal's keepers had quite a time persuading him to give up the strike in favor of his assigned quarters.

Charges of Plot Arouse Anger of French Deputies

Communist Vice-President of Chamber Accuses Fascist-Inclined Socialists of Intended Blow at Popular Front Government—Also Charges Actions in Liaison With Adolf Hitler

PARIS, March 24 (P).—Communist charges of a carefully-planned plot, whereby Colonel Francois de la Rocque's Fascist-inclined Social Party intended to overthrow the Popular Front Government by force, provoked a near riot early today, in the Chamber of Deputies.

Jacques Duclos, Communist Vice-President of the Chamber, made the accusation and further accused certain "Fascist groups" of acting in liaison with Reichschancellor Hitler.

STORMY COMMENT
Nerves frayed as the heated debate on last week's Clichy rioting went into early morning hours and the allegations brought members to their feet in stormy comment.

According to a document read by Duclos, De La Rocque's organization, assertedly a successor to the banned Croix de Feu, had been organized into volunteer and motorized units. When given the signal, they were to seize strategic positions throughout the capital. He declared responsibility for the Clichy disorders, in which five persons were killed, was charged against the Social Party by Duclos.

A twenty-five-minute recess was immediately called as soon as Duclos finished speaking. Jacques

ARTHUR HOLMES CALLED TO REST

Pioneer Resident Came to City Around Cape Horn Sixty-Five Years Ago

Arthur Holmes, a respected resident of the city for nearly sixty-five years, was found dead in his suite at 725 1-3 Fort Street yesterday afternoon by Bertram T. Hill and Arthur and Stanley Haynes. Mr. Hill, secretary of the Pacific Club had not seen Mr. Holmes for a week and decided to investigate his absence in case the aged clubman was ill. He had apparently passed away peacefully in his sleep at the age of eighty-four years.

Born in Yarmouth, England, in 1853, Mr. Holmes was believed to have taken part in the Franco-Prussian War of 1870, when only seventeen years of age. He arrived at Victoria in 1872 after a rough voyage around Cape Horn in a sailing vessel.

Lured by tales of gold in the Cassiar district of British Columbia, he left the Coast for several months.

CALIFORNIA STATE POLICE Determined to Stop Diving for Publicity Purposes—Woods May Be Disabled for Life as Result of Stunt

SAN FRANCISCO, March 23 (P).—The State Highway Patrol cracked a legal whip today over aspiring Bay Bridge divers by filing two misdemeanor charges against Ray Woods, who leaped 186 feet from the span yesterday, "for publicity," and barely escaped alive.

Patrol Captain Rudy Schmoke swore out complaints charging evasion of bridge tolls and pedestrianism, each providing for maximum punishment of $500 fine or six months in jail.

Despite the fact that Woods lay in a hospital with five fractured vertebrae and was almost paralyzed from the shoulders down, Schmoke said he would press the charges.

Ontario Raising Limits of Speed For Motor Cars

TORONTO, March 23 (P).—Ontario's motor vehicle speed limit will be fifty miles an hour in the country and thirty miles in cities, towns and villages. Unanimous approval to the increase from the present thirty-five-mile and twenty-mile limits was given by the Ontario Legislature today when it passed through committee stage a bill incorporating the new limits.

RESTLESS IN THEIR RANKS

Demanding Immediate Introduction of Social Plan in Alberta Legislature

EDMONTON, March 23 (P).—Immediate introduction of a definite plan of Social Credit was demanded in the Alberta Legislature today by R. E. Ansley (S.C.-Leduc).

"We want to know where we are going," said Mr. Ansley, in continuing the budget debate when the House resumed after the adjournment, following the death last week of Hon. P. C. H. Primrose, the Lieutenant-Governor.

MUST BE DEFINITE
"The time has come when we must have definite plans," he added, as he attacked the present budget as an "orthodox budget with little or nothing as regards the introduction of Social Credit."

He advocated the bringing of a Social Credit advisory expert to aid the Government.

Twice during the afternoon session, Social Credit members voted against the Government on a division to sustain the Speaker's rulings against resolutions of D. M. Duggan, Conservative leader. First, the Speaker was sustained, 42 to 14, and on the second, 46 to 10.

The Speaker ruled out of order resolutions dealing with a Conservative motion to have a special committee of the House report on the feasibility of reducing membership in the House and provincial redistribution.

VOTE WITH OPPOSITION
James Hansen, Taber, and S. A. G. Barnes, Edmonton, read out of the Social Credit party caucus last year, voted with the Conservative and Liberal Opposition, as well as six followers of Premier Abernethy. Other Social Crediters voting against were Fred Anderson, Calgary; Charles Cockcroft, Seattle; C. E. Ross, Athabasca; A. L. Blue, Ribstone; H. E. Ingrey, Drumheller, and G. L. MacLachlan, Corralton.

With a brief but colorful ceremony, Hon. John C. Bowen, of Edmonton, was sworn in as Lieutenant-Governor shortly before the House opened this afternoon. The oath of office was administered by Chief Justice Horace Harvey.

The retiring Chief Justice was born in Huron County, Ont., in 1868.

YUNNANFU, Yunnan Province, China, March 23 (P).—An overloaded steamer sank today on Kunlu Lake, south of here, carrying to their deaths 150 passengers and members of the crew.

PURPOSE EXPLAINED

The truce was declared, a spokesman for Kerr's office explained, for the purpose of "ensuring freedom of faith and conscience as well as freedom of the election"—opportunity for Protestants to choose the kind of government they want.

Confessional synd leaders, who viewed the election plan with skepticism, rejected the truce and said they would prefer to continue the fight to keep the Government out of church affairs.

The big plane required only seven hours, fifty-three minutes to negotiate the 1,067 miles from Honolulu, landing at 4:45 p.m. P.S.T.

"We had just about everything there is in the way of weather," reported Captain Edwin C. Musick, skipper of the big plane, "Downpours, tropical squalls, 180-degree wind shifts and clear skies."

Subcommittee of Non-Intervention Group Has Idea of Obtaining Possibly World-Wide Action to Check Spread of Spanish Conflict—Mussolini's Attitude Endangering Scheme

Italians Say Only Medical Aid Sent Since Ban Imposed

LONDON, March 23 (P).—Europe's long and stormy efforts to isolate the Spanish civil war, took an unexpected turn tonight, with a move to poll the twenty-seven nations adhering to the "Hands Off Spain" pact on the question of inviting the United States and other non-European states to join.

The subcommittee of the twenty-seven-nation group announced it would ask the full membership to state their views about extending the roster outside Europe, with the idea of obtaining action, perhaps worldwide, to smother the inherent danger of the Spanish conflict spreading.

REFUSE TO PARTICIPATE
The subcommittee's decision coincided with the statement of Count Dine Grandi, Italian delegate, that Italy refused at this juncture to participate in any discussion regarding withdrawal of foreign volunteers now fighting in Spain.

(The Spanish Government at Valencia has charged 30,000 Italians are fighting on the Guadalajara front northeast of Madrid.) While Britain accepted tonight

TEST RIGHT OF STOOL PIGEONS

Summonses Issued Against Police Operatives for Illegal Liquor Purchases

VANCOUVER, March 23 (P).—Summonses were issued here today against two Vancouver police operatives, charging that they unlawfully purchased liquor to obtain police evidence in alleged bootlegging cases. It marked the first step in an action which will decide the future course of police in enforcing the Liquor Act.

Acting on information laid by Thomas S. Hurley, Vancouver barrister, Police Court Clerk W. W. Compton issued the summonses against Charles F. Weldon and Oscar Gerwin, who are alleged to have purchased liquor to obtain evidence in two Vancouver cases last December.

ON RECENT DECISION
Mr. Hurley bases his prosecution of the police operatives on a recent decision of the Alberta Court of Appeal, which held it was unlawful for police operatives to break the law in obtaining evidence unless they had been authorized to do so by the Attorney-General of the Province or the officer commanding the Royal Canadian Mounted Police in the district.

The barrister swore the information against Weldon several days ago, but a summons was not issued by Police Court Clerk Compton until today, when Hurley laid the charge against Gerwin.

SEEK TO PREVENT OTHER DISASTERS

All Schools in Texas Oilfield Section Being Examined—No Prosecutions Expected

NEW LONDON, Tex., March 23 (P).—Convinced there is no evidence upon which to base prosecutions for the London school blast with its 455 deaths, public officials marshalled technical and legal preventives tonight against any such future disaster.

United States Bureau of Mines experts continued an investigation drilling 400 holes in the oil derrick section of the wealthy Consolidated School's grounds to test subsoil for possible gas seepage.

Rigid inspection of every rural school in the east Texas oil area was expected as a precaution. In the military inquiry it was testified escaping gas was found in a nearby school building. Several schools were closed for a day to permit a thorough inspection.

CUSTODY OF PRINCE DECIDED BY COURT

LONDON, March 23 (P).—The custody of thirteen-year-old Prince Rainier, heir to the Principality of Monaco, was awarded in Chancery Division of High Court today to his maternal grandfather, the Prince of Monaco, who had waged a long legal fight with the boy's father.

Government Forces Increase Gains on Guadalajara Front

LOYALISTS Hold Off Two Insurgent Assaults Near Madrid While Troops Recapture Two More Villages on Other Fronts

MADRID, March 23 (P).—Spanish Government troops battled slowly ahead of the Guadalajara front today, and held off two insurgent assaults near Madrid. Following up their recapture of many Guadalajara Province towns last week, the soldiers drove forward on both sides of the Guadalajara-Zaragoza highway.

The Government summarized the situation thus: The main column, operating on the highway, was at a standstill less than a mile from the important town of Almadrones, fifty-three miles to the east.

Just northwest of Madrid, in the Arava district, insurgents struck and were repulsed. To the south-east, on the Jarama front, they failed to advance.

The insurgent attacks on the Jarama sector were concentrated near Morata de Tajuna, where they have been trying for a month to break through to the Valencia highway.

Oxford Relying on Unusually Heavy Crew in Effort to End Cambridge's Long String of Consecutive Victories—Light Blues Favorites

PUTNEY, March 23.—The closest race in years was forecast tonight as Oxford and Cambridge completed training for tomorrow's eighty-ninth inter-varsity boat race on the Thames. Cambridge were 3-to-1 to 5-to-1 favorites to score their fourteenth consecutive victory over the Dark Blues, but confidence in the Oxford crew was higher than for years past.

A HEAVY CREW
The Oxford crew together weigh 1,562 pounds, fifty-six pounds more than the Cambridge eight. Against Oxford's power and slower stroke, Cambridge show better blade work. The question more or less boils down to whether Oxford, the best crew from the Isis in years, are good enough to beat a Cambridge eight not quite up to standard.

NAMES AND WEIGHTS
The order of rowing and names of the rival eights:

Oxford
M. G. Ashby (Oundle-New College), bow, 172 pounds.
D. M. Winer (Winchester-Corpus Christi), No. 2, 168 pounds.
R. R. Stewart (Eton-Magdalen), No. 3, 182 pounds.
R. O. Rowe (Eton-University College), No. 4, 179 pounds.
J. P. Burroughs (St. Edward's-St. Edmund Hall), No. 5, 169 pounds.
J. D. Burroughs (Winchester-Magdalen), No. 6, 200 pounds.
J. C. Cherry (Westminster-Brasenose), No. 7, 193 pounds.
A. B. Hodgson (Eton-Oriel), stroke, 170 pounds.
G. J. Merfield (King Edward VI School-Edmund Hall), cox, 109 pounds.

Cambridge
T. S. Cree (Geelong-Jesus), bow, 160 pounds.
H. W. Mason (Clifton-Trinity Hall), No. 2, 162 pounds.
M. Bradley (Monckton Combe-Pembroke), No. 3, 184 pounds.
D. M. Napier (Eton-Magdalen), No. 4, 177 pounds.
M. P. Lannon (Westminster-Thir Trinity), No. 5, 179 pounds.
T. B. Langton (Radley-Jesus), No. 6, 193 pounds.
A. Burroughs (St. Paul's-Jesus), No. 7, 171 pounds.
R. J. Peritt (King's College School-Trinity Hall), stroke, 168 pounds.
T. H. Hunter (Harvard-Trinity Hall), cox, 112 pounds.

THE OLD BLUES
Of the Oxford eight, Ashby, Winer, Cherry and Sturrock are Old Blues, while Cree, Mason and Lannon rowed in last year's victorious Cambridge eight. Of the eighty-eight races rowed since the first encounter in 1829, Cambridge have won forty-seven and Oxford forty. The 1877 race was a dead heat.

The course, 4 miles, 300 yards long, runs from Putney Bridge to Mortlake on the winding Thames.

WANTS TARIFF
ITEM LOWERED

Bennett Says Canada Faces Possible Shortage of Galvanized Sheet Iron

OTTAWA, March 23.—Canada is faced with a possible shortage of galvanized sheet iron as a result of the rearmament programme in the United Kingdom, the House of Commons learned today as Conservative Leader R. B. Bennett urged a temporary lowering of the tariff on black sheets from the United States for galvanizing.

Thus the House witnessed the leader of the protectionist Conservative party pressing a Liberal Government to lower tariffs. Hon. C. F. Dunning, Finance Minister, said he was not sure of the facts, but if the facts were as Mr. Bennett put them he would not hesitate to act. The discussion arose in connection with the Canada-United Kingdom trade agreement on an item providing for a 5 per cent duty against sheets imported from the United Kingdom and a margin of preference involving a minimum duty of 15 per cent against the United States. The present duty against the latter country is 20 per cent. All the tariff changing items in the treaty were approved in committee of ways and means and tomorrow the House will take up the items providing for fixed margins of preference, expected to be less contentious.

MURDER THEORY
BEING STUDIED

Nine-Year-Old Winnipeg Mystery Subject to Renewed Investigation

WINNIPEG, March 23.—Search for the slayer of six-year-old Julia Johnson, who mysteriously disappeared from the yard at her home nine years ago, was on tonight.

Old files, long lying on police shelves, were scanned closely for clues that might lead to identity of the old man with the brownish beard and moustache, seen with Julia the day she disappeared. Likewise were efforts being made to determine if the old man with the brownish beard was the same man whom Julia, a few days before she disappeared, had called the "boogey man." She had run home breathlessly that day.

SUCCESS IS DOUBTFUL
Whether the mysterious man would be located was doubtful. He has been sought for questioning ever since Julia's disappearance. Chief of Police George Smith announced every clue, new and old, was being studied minutely.

It was somebody she knew and somebody who knew all about the old vacant building and how to get into it," said Mrs. Anton Johnson, the girl's mother, after she had been informed by police that the remains of her child who disappeared in 1928 had been found.

The remains were located by a workman dismantling an old boiler in a building about two blocks from where the Johnsons lived when Julia disappeared. Mrs. Johnson was passing nearby to visit friends in the district when police saw her and took her to headquarters to inform her of the discovery.

REMAINS IDENTIFIED
Identity of the remains was made by a dust-covered toque, a lock of hair, shoes and stockings, a piece of dress and Julia's favorite ball. It established to the satisfaction of police that the mystery of Julia's disappearance had been solved. Still unsolved, however, was the manner in which she met death. Police accepted the murder theory. "Everything points at the present time to the body having been doubled up and thrust into the boiler," said Dr. H. M. Speechly, coroner. There was no fracture of the skull or broken bones, he said. Close examination of the remains is being made by experts.

In Drive Against
Binding of Feet

SHANGHAI, March 23.—Schoolboys of Kiangsu Province today had entered into a new drive to eradicate the custom of foot-binding for women and girls. Arm-bands inscribed with characters which, when translated, read: "I have sworn not to marry any girl with bound feet," were given to all boys who took the pledge under oath.

Kiangsu Province, with a population of about 30,000,000, contains the cities of Shanghai and Nanking.

FREE TRADERS
FEW IN HOUSE

Finance Minister Finds More Than One, However, During Treaty Debate

OTTAWA, March 23.—It looked for a few moments like a roll-call of free traders in the House of Commons tonight, but only two members registered, while Finance Minister C. A. Dunning formally requested one of his colleagues in the Liberal party not to refer to him as such.

In the course of debate on the Canada-United Kingdom trade agreement, W. J. Ward (Liberal, Dauphin) referred to Mr. Dunning as a free trader. "I am not a free trader and never have been," Mr. Dunning declared. "I do not believe there is more than one out-and-out free trader in this House."

R. J. Deachman (Liberal, North Huron) declared he was "definitely" a free trader, apparently assuming he was the one referred to. Then J. G. Ross (Liberal, Moose Jaw) protested he had been forgotten. "I believe as sincerely in free trade as does the member for North Huron," Mr. Ross declared, "and I am proud of it."

LONDON TRAFFIC

Automobiles to Carry Stickers and Police Loudspeakers to Give Directions

LONDON, March 23.—Scotland Yard, grappling with the problem of getting thousands of spectators to seats along the Coronation procession route, has evolved a "follow the color" plan. Windshield stickers in six colors will be issued for automobiles, and one color allotted to each section of the six-mile route.

Motorists pouring into London May 12 will be greeted by police cars at strategic points, their loudspeakers blaring such instructions as "Green straight ahead, blue turn left, brown second turn right."

Signposts in six colors will guide pedestrians to their seats. A man with a blue ticket must follow blue arrows until he finds the blue section and surrenders his blue ticket.

BURNS' BACON WON HIGHEST BRITISH EMPIRE AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE

The 1936 Dairy Show, held last October in London's Famous Agricultural Hall drew exhibits from all over the British Empire. The comment of one of the judges, conveyed to us in a recent letter from our London agent was that this year's show was the "Finest Exhibit of Empire Bacon yet seen."

Amid the stiffest competition put up by meat packing plants from all over the British Empire, Burns' Bacon won the highest award for Quality, Fineness, and Mildness of Flavor, thus definitely establishing Burns & Co. Limited as "Canada's Leading Bacon House."

The Shamrock Bacon and Shamrock Hams too, regularly offered for sale from Victoria to Halifax are prepared and processed in the same exacting manner as the bacon we shipped to the Royal Dairy Show. ## FIVE PERSONS BURN TO DEATH

Frame House Swept by Fire
Starting in Old-Fashioned Stove

BALDWIN HARBOR, N.Y., March 23 (AP)—Five persons died early today in the blazing interior of a two-story frame house which was swept by fire, apparently starting from an old-fashioned coal stove converted into an oil burner. The volunteer fire department from nearby Baldwin responded a few minutes after a neighbor discovered the house in flames, but was able to rescue only one of the five victims, Barbara Morse, four. She had been burned so badly she lived only a few moments. The other dead were: Jessie, eleven; Helen, nine; Rose, thirteen; and Mrs. Rose Van Orden Morse, forty-five. The father, William Morse, fifty, and two other children, William, Jr., sixteen, and Lillian, twenty, jumped from second-story bedroom windows. All were reported in serious condition at a Hempstead hospital. Baldwin Harbor is a community on the south shore of Long Island.

Jobless Swarm to Turner Valley

TURNER VALLEY, Alta., March 23 (AP)—Attracted by reports of industrial activity, a large number of jobless have swarmed into the Turner Valley oil field. They sleep outside near the huge gas flares, pool resources and cook their own meals as they attempt to find jobs, but contractors say they cannot begin to absorb as many men as are available.

EASTER RITES ON MOUNTAIN TOP PLANNED

Fourteenth Annual Sunrise Service to Be Conducted On Sunday Next

REV. DR. CLEM DAVIES
WILL PREACH SERMON

The fourteenth Easter sunrise service will be conducted by Rev. Dr. Clem Davies on Mount Tolmie next Sunday morning at 7:30 o'clock. Originated by Dr. Davies in 1923, this inspiring yet simple service of praise and thanksgiving with the Resurrection motif will again gladden the hearts of thousands of early morning worshippers, in nature's shrine.

PARKING FACILITIES
Parking facilities for hundreds of cars are now available and aged and infirm may be taken by automobile direct to the mountain top without any effort on their part. The dignified prayer service of the Church of England will form the basis of the service in which the whole congregation will join. The victorious Easter hymns will be sung and the sermon will be preached by Dr. Clem Davies.

Dr. Davies requests those with automobiles will render an Easter good turn to neighbors and friends without transportation and who wish to make the Easter morning pilgrimage, to tender their friends a lift on Sunday morning.

PROGRAMMES OF SERVICE
Programmes of the service will be provided free of charge and will cover the entire service, including hymns, and the responsive reading of Luke, chapter xxiv, verses 1 to 50. The service will last one hour and will be concluded in good time for those intending to be present at the Easter services in their own churches.

P. R. FLEMING PASSES AWAY

Last Rites for Well-Known Insurance Man Will Be Held Saturday

Perley Ralph Fleming, 2089 Oak Bay Avenue, well-known insurance man and a resident of Victoria for the past thirty-one years, passed away yesterday at St. Joseph's Hospital after a lengthy illness.

Born in Newcastle, New Brunswick, on December 28, 1879, Mr. Fleming came to British Columbia forty years ago. For some years he served as purser on C.P.R. boats on the Arrow Lakes and B.C. Coast Service. He established a real estate and insurance business in Victoria in 1910, being appointed Vancouver Island representative for the Canada Life Assurance Company. Mr. Fleming, who was widely known throughout Vancouver Island among loggers, fishermen and miners, made frequent trips to the West Coast, and acquired considerable timber limits some years ago, also becoming interested in fisheries and mining properties of that district.

He was prominent in Conservative circles and was a member of the Union Club and the Native Sons of Canada.

Mr. Fleming is survived by his widow and one daughter, Rena, at the family residence; one brother, Blair Fleming, Vancouver, and three sisters in Newcastle, N.S. His only son, Jack, died on October 6, 1936. Funeral services will be held on Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in Haywards B.C. Funeral Chapel, Rev. Canon Nunn officiating. Interment will be made in the family plot in Royal Oak Burial Park.

ANGER ROUSED BY CHARGES OF PLOT

Doriot, leader of the French People's Party, took the floor when the debate was resumed at 2:20 a.m. Doriot sided with the Rightists in insisting Communists were at fault. Premier Blum declared his unswerving opposition to Fascism in France in a vibrant defence of his Government's handling of the Clichy rioting.

HAS UPPER HAND
He appealed in the Chamber of Deputies for a strong vote of confidence and reminded the Chamber his Popular Front coalition holds the upper hand in France as well as in Parliament.

"The People's Front will make useless all attempts to install Fascism in France—by force if necessary," he declared. Just before Blum began to speak, Deputy Jean Ybarra, a leader of the French Social Party, warned the Chamber that "Hitler never will tolerate Communism in France."

Quickly the Premier interrupted. "That has nothing to do with it. We will not allow foreign pressure in this assembly."

Are Unable To Attend Coronation
LONDON, March 23 (AP)—Three members of the Royal Family, all children of Queen Victoria, have announced they will not attend the coronation in Westminster Abbey because of age.

The King's great-uncle, the Duke of Connaught, former Governor-General of Canada, who will be eighty-seven in May, considered the ceremonies too great a strain on his health. He will watch the procession from the gardens of Clarence House along the Mall. The Duke's two sisters, Princess Louise, eighty-nine, and Beatrice, eighty, also have decided not to attend.

Address, Illustrated by Slides, Given Before Bruce, Huron and Grey Association
Members of the Bruce, Huron and Grey Association listened to an interesting lecture in the A.O.F. Hall last evening by Major M. Kirkpatrick-Crockett, who described the British naval expedition to block the German naval base at Zeebrugge during the Great War. The daring idea conceived by Admiral Bacon, officer commanding the Dover Patrol, was finally acted upon by Admiral Bevel. The expedition, wholly British, was directed by Captain Carpenter, who, among several others, was awarded the Victoria Cross for gallantry in action. Though official German communiques declared the attempt to block the channel and destroy the Mole to be only partially successful, Major Kirkpatrick-Crockett contended that the slides he had shown were proof of the fact that the attack had done all that was intended. Miss Hannah Barr, contralto, sang.

"My Ain Folk" and gave as an encore "When Song Is Sweet." Two solos by Arthur Jackman, baritone, "Jolly Roger" (Robertson) and "Youth" (Allitsen), were warmly applauded. Supper was served by a committee of the ladies, and later dancing enjoyed.

U.S. SUPREME COURT ISSUE

It seems likely that President Roosevelt of the United States will secure his "reform of the Supreme Court" of that country, a reform which he seeks as he has grown impatient because so many of the aspects of the New Deal have been declared unconstitutional. He wants to avoid such a happening in the future. He is asking for what is perilously like supreme power, and if it is granted that power will also be vested in his successors in office whether they are good, bad or indifferent administrators. In other words, the United States, perhaps unknowingly to many of its people, is verging towards a dictatorship.

Mr. Charles Benedict, writing in The Magazine of Wall Street, sees in the Supreme Court issue a question that involves the very essence of the American theory of government in which the executive, legislative and judicial branches "are accorded definite functions, with each serving as a check on the other." He says the President is asking Americans to weaken the judicial branch of government, "to knock the props out from under the Constitution." This is likely to happen because Mr. Roosevelt holds Congress in the hollow of his hand. He desires that there should be no check on any mistakes he may make in the future and he admits that he is operating under a trial and error method since he is exploring new fields and trying out new theories. Mr. Benedict does not like what is proposed affecting the powers of the Supreme Court and says:

"Mr. Roosevelt's term will expire in 1941 and he has already expressed a determination not to run again. Who will succeed him no one knows. Perhaps it will be a man who would exercise his authority with the same wisdom and skill—perhaps not. Herein lies the danger. Somewhere along the line of future Presidents might come that individual who would abuse this broad authority to the further subordination of the legislative and judicial branches of the government and the consequent rise of dictatorship—making robots of us all. Let us not place the control of our destiny in the hands of any living man. Such supreme power belongs to God, the Creator alone."

A GREAT SCIENTIST

Dr. Elihu Thomson, who died recently at Swampscott, Massachusetts, will be rated by history as one of the great scientists of this age. He was a pioneer in electrical development, and although his discoveries were not as spectacular as those of Thomas A. Edison, his many inventions—his held 800 patents—vastly furthered the physical progress of humanity. Outside his favorite realm of electricity his inventive genius roamed over a wide area and left its mark in many fields. The cream separator on the farm, the centrifuge in the biological laboratory, the fused quartz mirror of the astronomical observatory, the electric welding machine in the workshop are his products.

In the field of electrical development The New York Times ascribes to Dr. Thomson the repulsion type of induction electric motor, the magnetic blow-out principle in lightning arresters and electric switches, the oil-cooled type of transformer, the constant current transformer and the modern process of commercially treating fused quartz. His resistance method of electric welding has been in use for fifty years. As early as 1875 he demonstrated the transmission of signals without wires—more than ten years before Hertz in Germany discovered the electromagnetic waves of radio. He invented the first practical watt meter.

The breadth of Dr. Thomson's gifts is shown in his having been the only scientist in the world to be awarded all three of the great prizes of the English scientific and engineering world, the Hughes medal, the Kelvin medal and the Faraday medal. On his eightieth birthday in 1933 this eulogium was said of him by Dr. Karl T. Compton: "More than any man now living, or, in fact, more than any man in history, Professor Thomson has combined in a remarkable way the constructive powers of the inventor, the thoroughness and soundness of the man of science and the kindly balance of the ideal philosopher, teacher and friend." Of a surety, among the centenarians to be observed in 2037 A.D. will be that of Elihu Thomson.

AUSTRIA'S PROBLEM

The spotlight, shifting restlessly from one part of the map of Europe to another, shines for the moment upon Austria, that once mighty power, now a mere shadow of its former self. Austria, it appears, must shortly make a momentous decision. Is she to throw in her lot in an economic alliance and possibly an actual political union with Germany, or is she to be allowed to continue her independent existence, plough her own furrow, and mind her own business?

What makes Germany's relations with Austria especially interesting just now is that many Austrians are looking forward hopefully to a Restoration of the Monarchy, an event which, if it comes to pass, must inevitably extinguish any hope of an Austro-German union. How do Austria's neighbors view the situation? Czechoslovakia, with a genuinely parliamentary system of government, naturally looks with disfavor upon Nazi interference with other countries. To Poland, an independent Austria would be more satisfactory than an Austria dominated by Berlin. Italy has expressed herself as believing that Restoration is an internal affair for Austria. France is not likely to regret a diminution of German influence in Europe.

The Austrian Government, though it stands firm as a unit against German antagonism, is not yet unanimous for Restoration. However, two ministers with Nazi sympathies will very probably be forced out of the Austrian Cabinet before long. That event, when it happens, may precipitate a decision in one way or the other. Austria has been described as rapidly approaching the crossroads which lead, one of them to Hapsburg, the other to Hitler.

MEANINGS OF WORDS

It is not only radio announcers who should be taught the correct use of words. It is everyone who wants to speak correct English, and there can be no such teaching without the meanings of words being learned and the elimination of exaggeration from talking and writing. Recently in a broadcast there was a questionnaire about the meanings of words. It was asked what "cyclorama" meant, and an answer given was that it was an instrument for measuring the velocity of cyclones. Evidently it had never been heard of before.

There are not many of those who use the terms "short-wave" and "high-frequency" who know what they mean, and perhaps fewer still who know the difference between a "cataclysm" and a "holocaust." Other words, the meanings of which are confused, are "chaotic" and "inchoate," "imply" and "infer," "coy" and "demure," "catastrophe" and "disaster." As regards the latter two words Disraeli is reputed to have said that "If Mr. Gladstone were to fall off London Bridge, that would be a disaster. If some one were to fish him safely out of the river again that would be a catastrophe."

There is a more classic interpretation of the difference in meanings attributed to Noah Webster, the author of the dictionary in commonest use on this continent. It is recorded that at dinner time his wife was out of the room for a moment he put his arm around the waist of the maid who was serving at the table. At that moment his wife came back. "I am surprised, Noah," she said. "On the contrary, Dear," he replied. "You are astonished. It is I who am surprised."

CREATING COLORS

It is said that there are 100,000,000 distinguishable colors and only 500 color names. The production of new colors is one of the fads of the age. Even the poultry farmer is interested, and the British Ministry of Agriculture has issued a bulletin on the right shades to be attached to the hen's egg. That is no longer a matter for the hen alone. The bulletin is concerned with the complexion of the yolk, not the shades of the shell. The rich yellow yolk which housewives want is produced by appropriate foodstuffs on the poultry farm. Clover gives a medium-orange red; beetroot a darker shade still. It may be possible in time to have the color of the yolk marked on the shells so that eggs can be selected for whatever kind of omelette is required. The Manchester Guardian says that a Coronation piano has been made with red, white and blue keys, and suggests there should be a Coronation egg with a yolk like the Union Jack.

While saying that doctors welcome the attempt by the State to organize national physique, Lord Horder, the noted physician, is somewhat caustic in his remarks on the subject. "The cynic tells us," he says, "that only the politician with his ear to the ground knows why this is being done. But that needn't trouble us. The hound holds his tail quite as high on a false scent as on the real one. Later we might do something to organize the national mind, and so get back some of the zest for living."

THE SEA GYPHY

I am fevered with the sunset,
I am fretful with the bay,
For the wander-thirst is on me
And my soul is in Cathay.

There's a schooner in the offing,
With her topmasts shot with fire,
And my heart has gone aboard her,
For the Islands of Desire.

I must forth again tomorrow!
With the sunset I must be
Hull down on the trail of rapture
In the wonder of the Sea.

—Richard Hovey.

Note and Comment

By Sandham Graves

Were I the custodian of a Doomsday book in which were to be entered against the names of men and women a record of their deeds, I would devote a special page to the heroism of a Boston school teacher, who last week sacrificed herself to save twenty students under her care. Miss Katherine Murphy, aged thirty-three, a high school teacher in the Boston area, was instructing a class in chemistry, when the chemicals being handled exploded. The plucky teacher flung herself between the flaming mass of corrosives and twenty of the twenty-eight pupils in the laboratory at the time. She was badly burned about her face, neck and hands. Eight students on the other side of the desk received minor injuries. The Associated Press carried the dispatch in fifteen lines of type.

Sharp increases in the price of scrap metal has created a new problem for certain cities in the Eastern states, the wholesale theft of man-hole covers. Indianapolis officials, complaining to the police recently, said thirty-eight man-hole covers, each worth $8.50, had disappeared in a single night. The covers are broken up by the thieves and sold unrecognizably as scrap metal, which is bringing a high price. Man's natural reaction, of course, will be to padlock the man-hole covers, so that they cannot be stolen. It would be cheaper, in the long run, to teach honesty all round, and then the world could do away with all the padlocks at one sweep. Visionary as that may sound, if civilization had paid as much attention to building character, as it has to fostering lawlessness and deceit, man-hole covers would rest secure in their beds this night.

Since self-deception appears to be a first law of humanity, some of the little deceptions and artifices of Nature are not without their interest. For days now I have been watching a woodpecker family, preparing for an important event high up on the stem of an ageing fir tree. I know it is a nest they are carving, but they have gone to great pains to deceive me about it. First I watched them examine nearly every tree in the wood in question. Then they spent a deal of time flying about telephone poles on the road hundreds of feet away. Next they called and whistled to each other from opposite ends of the copse. Always, when I heard them, they were somewhere else than at the site of their new home.

It is when they are silent, however, that the real work goes on. Then it is you can hear the muffled drumming of the beaks against the inside of the bore they are making in' that tree. Then it is that you can catch a glimpse of the excavator as he comes to the mouth of the shaft to fling away the chips. This is done with great care, as chips lying at the base of the tree would warn the woodpeckers' enemies, and they have enemies. So the chips are thrown a little at a time on to the wind, to be carried fifty or sixty yards away before reaching the ground. Day by day the work progresses.

Without having climbed there, I know what it will be like, for I have watched other woodpeckers. It will be two inches in diameter and as round as if bored with a large augur. First, the tunnel will go straight into the tree to a depth of perhaps three inches; then it will turn sharply downwards for a depth of six inches, and at the bottom of all the bore will be widened out into a comfortable apartment, to be lined with soft materials for the nest itself.

Soon now the eggs will be laid in the nest, and the birds will grow even more mysterious about their business. They will watch everything that lives and moves around that wood. They will, by their actions, project to high heaven that not for one moment should anyone suppose there is a nest there; that such a thought is ridiculous; that anyone with an ounce of brains would know that hole up there in the tree might do for a wren or a sapsucker, but not for a woodpecker! In the end, however, they will admit it, and lead a brave young family of fledglings forth to learn to fly with that swooping, darting, erratic motion which is peculiarly their own.

Add to the list of British Columbia election symptoms: the current visit of Cabinet ministers to relief camps about the province; British Columbia's unquestioning acceptance of Dominion action in writing off drought and treasury bills in Saskatchewan without protest for similar relief; the visit of the Premier to his own constituency; the air of expectancy with which full announcement of a road-programme is awaited; and the discharging of the solemn jury of coronators on the raft in the Inner Harbor, after they had completely failed to agree on a verdict.

Old French Songs

(By S. E. L.)

Children who are learning French in the schools of Victoria and vicinity, teachers who have charge of that subject, parents who are attentively watching the progress of their children, and citizens generally who are interested in the bilingual problem will all be interested in a quite notable radio concert announced by the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation for Thursday, March 25, from 8:45 to 9 p.m., Eastern standard time.

This programme is to consist of French folk songs given by a group of pupils in the Lord Selkirk School in Winnipeg. Radio listeners have often had the opportunity of hearing French songs rendered by natives of the French-Canadian province of Quebec. The distinctive feature of this programme is that the performers are English-speaking boys and girls. Clearly, the young people who are to take part in presenting such a programme are acquiring a very practical acquaintance with the language. The programme has been prepared and organized by G. R. Brunet, head of the French department of the Lord Selkirk School. It is something of an event in the history of the teaching of French in the schools of Western Canada.

The time used is Pacific standard for the month of March. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight. The figures for height serve to distinguish high water from low water. Where blanks occur in the table, the tide rises or falls continuously during two successive tidal periods without turning.

The height is in feet and tenths of a foot, measured from the average level of low water.

To find the depth of water on the sill of the Esquimalt drydock, add 18.9 feet to the height of high water as above given.

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

(From The Daily Colonist of March 24, 1887)

Special Colonist Train—It is understood that the Canadian Pacific Railway will run weekly special colonist trains from Western Ontario through to the Coast. In order that intending settlers may have every facility for locating upon the lands of the province, it is imperative that there should be an agent thoroughly acquainted with the location of lands to meet the settlers at the trains and direct them to suitable locations. It is suggested that the appointment of a Dominion agent similar to the one at Montreal, Winnipeg and Victoria, should be made at Vancouver, and it is trusted that such action will be taken at once to induce the Federal authorities to favorably consider the matter.

A Provincial University—Secretary Hayward, H. F. Heisterman and Dr. Milne, of the Victoria School Board, had an interview with the Provincial Secretary yesterday, when they urged the importance and necessity, in the interest of education, of the establishment of a provincial university. The Minister received the deputation cordially and promised that the project would receive the early attention of the Government, so that the scheme, if favorably entertained, might be laid before the Legislature at the next session.

He Let Weeds Remain

Ernest, of Little Saanich Mountain, read how it was possible to eradicate weeds from a lawn with copper nitrate solution. Hopping into his chariot, he bowed down the hill to a city drug store all set to get the necessary chemical to produce a velvet patch outside his lofty domain. Ernest joined him, copper nitrate was worth 40 cents per ounce. When he recovered his breath, he asked the man behind the counter if it was necessary to mortgage one's house to produce a weedless lawn. . . . Oddly enough at Army and Navy Veterans' St. Patrick's Day smoker stewards doled out clay pipes bearing the letters: "Made in Scotland." . . . Our tobaccoist friend's wife has her doubts about signs. While clanking along lower Yates Street in the family "struggle buggy," she spotted a light truck bearing the letters: "Speedy Delivery." The vehicle was being pushed along by the driver. . . . Aubrey is so intensely patriotic that he has ordered red, white and blue striped paper to wrap up his delectable sandwiches. After experimenting on his friends for two weeks, he developed a new filling around which he plans to build a "coronation sandwich."—G.B.

Too Much Horsepower

Those young Lochinvars, out of the West, stop not for brake, nor for stone, out Fairfield way, these Spring days. Neither do they stop for school signs, nor slow signs at Five Points, traveling faster by far than the young Scot ever dreamed of galloping to Netherby Hall. There is no excuse for them. They may, it is true, be seeking the girl of their dreams, but they do so with discourtesy. They say in effect: "Get out of our way or take the consequences," and they do it with cars powered with engines whose strength they so little understand. . . . There will be a distressing accident out Five Points way one of these days, because one driver will be thinking of himself, and not what the other fellow is doing. There are warnings in plenty by those dangerous corners, but little heed is taken of them. It is very devious my hope that when the crash comes, as come one day it most certainly will, it will fall upon the careless, who hold their fellows in such little respect. Meanwhile, might this paragraphist again suggest that a summons in time might save several lives?—B.G.

We'll Pick Buxton

Billy Buxton, Victoria southpaw batter, who stopped Able Israel, Seattle Jewish scrapper, has been matched with Speedy Dado, Filipino beller, who a few seasons ago was close to the top in his division. The bout, scheduled for eight rounds, will headline a fistfight's show at the Civic Arena, Seattle, Tuesday, March 30. Buxton will be in Seattle today for his training under the guidance of Dode Bercot, southpaw star of a few years ago. We picked Buxton to stop Mr. Israel and he did. This time we are going to name Buxton the winner again and place Mr. Dado on the canvas where he will be counted out.—S.T.

Some Cage Gossip

The Dominos are two down and three to go. Varsity deserved to win both games, as they were the better club each evening. The Thunderbirds were surprised at the extremely poor showing the Dominos made in both games. Varsity, of course, looked good simply because the Dominos looked so bad. The students worked some smart offensives and had the local boys baffled by their attacks. It's hard to pick out an individual star on the Varsity team for the starting lineup of Jimmy Bardley, their captain; George Fringle, Ralph Henderson, Ran Mattison and Art Willoughby, all turned in fine performances. . . . Reeve Alex Lockley and his daughter sat in at the second game and left the gym disappointed with the rest of the Victorians present.

I have been asked by nearly every fan in the city since returning from the games what was the matter with this club of ours. Well, to tell you the truth, it's hard to explain, for I have never seen them go into such a slump and stay that way for two straight games. . . . Art Chapman was entirely off color and at no time did he look like himself. With the main cog in the Dominos off his game, the front line just failed to function. Chuck Chapman, Jack Mottishaw and Hank Rowe stood out for the locals. This boy, Mottishaw, played his head off in both games, and really had tough luck with some of his one-handed shots. The Dominos must win Friday to stay in the running. Can this club take three straight? That's a tough question to answer.—J.D.

Bicycle Journey to Washington Planned By Cowichan Scouts

Arthur Freeman and Philip LaFortune Will Leave April 24 for American National Jamboree—To Travel 3,600 Miles

DAYS packed with adventure, with a possibility of personally meeting President Roosevelt as a climax, loom for Philip LaFortune, sixteen, and Arthur Freeman, eighteen, who will leave Victoria, April 24, and cycle across the continent to Washington, D.C., where they will attend the American National Scout Jamboree.

Young Freeman is troop leader of the First Cowichan Troop, while his companion holds the rank of patrol leader.

Their journey eastward will take them until June 30 and has been mapped out by them in detail. It is anticipated they will make an average of fifty-five miles daily. On some days they hope to travel as much as ninety miles towards the American capital.

Once in Washington they will be but two units of 40,000 other Scouts, who are to be reviewed by the President. There is the distinction, however, that few will have come so far, will have planned so intensively, or will have had the same co-operation as these two Scouts from this island.

En route, they will be billeted at most points by the Boy Scouts of America. It is their intention to make a detour into Yellowstone Park, and to visit Chicago, Minneapolis, St. Louis, Cleveland, Philadelphia, New York and the famous West Point Military College, a total journey of 3,600 miles.

MANY ATTEND CONCERT
Details of one of the most adventurous journeys in the recent history of Scouting were made public by Scoutmaster O. Philipowsky at a concert held in Duncan, March 19, at which 700 persons were present.

The affair was attended by Julius Griffith, Vancouver, president of British Columbia Boy Scouts Association; Major J. Wise, Scout commissioner, Victoria; W. Solway, executive commissioner, Vancouver;

CHARGE CAUSES SHARP BATTLE

Conservative Leader Says Ontario Premier Deliberately Misled People

TORONTO, March 23. — A charge Premier Mitchell Hepburn "deliberately misled" the people in respect to provincial grants to separate schools caused a storm in the Ontario Legislature tonight.

The charge was made by George Henry, Conservative house leader. Mr. Henry denied using the text of remarks quoted by Provincial Secretary Harry Nixon, and said he could not withdraw what he had not said.

Speaker Norman Hipel ruled Mr. Henry must withdraw, and by a 47-13 division the House upheld the Speaker.

ON EDUCATION ESTIMATES
The House was in committee discussing Education Department estimates and Mr. Henry learned from Hon. Dr. L. J. Simpson, Education Minister, there had been no substantial reductions in grants to separate schools.

"The Prime Minister has for two years been deliberately misleading or attempting to mislead the people of the province, and you have been sitting idly by assisting him in this nefarious practice," said Mr. Henry to Dr. Simpson.

The interchange that followed resulted in the division.

GOING DEEP TO GET MORE SALT

SHANGHAI, March 23. — Drilling of 4,000-foot wells to tap rich salt deposits at Kianting, in Szechuen Province, was in prospect today with formation of a Government-aided company.

Owners of present wells in the area, drilled to a depth of 2,000 feet almost 800 years ago, will be paid $1,800,000 for destruction of their property, it has been announced.

The old wells are yielding little brine after eight centuries of pumping, but scientific borings have shown another immense brine reservoir is located at the 4,000-foot level.

City and District

Visits City Again—A. E. Boyle of Winnipeg, a regular visitor to this city, arrived at the Empress Hotel yesterday, and expects to stay a month.

Glass Broken—Heisterman, Forgan & Company "informed" police yesterday all the glass in front of a house, and several panes at the rear, had been broken at 415 John Street.

Weekly Luncheon—Commencing this week, the weekly luncheons of the Oxford Group Movement will be held every Thursday at 12 o'clock noon in Spencer's luncheon.

Pump Damaged—Oliver & Landon Motors, Ltd., told police yesterday a gasoline pump outside the garage had been damaged and several flower boxes broken during the previous evening.

Machines Stolen—Equimall police informed city police yesterday that a check-up showed two vending machines had been stolen from Gorge Vale Golf Club building where premises were entered recently.

Tools Missing—Theft of three hammers, a set of thirty-two drill points, tin cutters, a plane and a drill from the Capital Sheet Metal Works, 2919 Rock Bay Avenue, was reported to police yesterday.

Ward Three Meeting—Ward Three, city Conservatives, will hold their regular monthly meeting this evening at the Conservative Rooms, at eight o'clock, with William Duck in the chair. W. H. M. Haldane and Leslie F. Osborne will be guest speakers.

Service Tonight—At the Pentecostal Assembly, Evangelist George S. Koonz, Portland, will hold an evangelistic service at 7:45 o'clock tonight, to which the public is invited. The services will continue each evening except Saturday at the same time.

Receives Appointment—Don. Kelly was appointed to the staff of the water department of Saanich Municipality at a meeting of the water committee at Royal Oak last evening, after four men, chosen from numerous applicants, had been interviewed.

Will Address Music Teachers—M. Macklin, chief executive of the Royal Schools of Music, London, will address music teachers of the city tomorrow, at 8:30 p.m., in the Princess Louise room of the Empress Hotel. All music teachers interested are invited to attend.

Mission Service Tonight—Rev. J. Richmond Craig will hold another of his mission services at the Fairfield United Church this evening, at 8 o'clock. This service is being held in response to numerous requests following Mr. Craig's one-week Lenten mission, which came to a close on Sunday last.

Will Speak Twice—Rev. G. A. Reynolds, pastor of First Baptist Church, will be out of the city tomorrow and Friday. Mr. Reynolds will be one of the pre-Easter service preachers tomorrow in the Olympia Theatre, Port Angeles, and will speak Friday evening at the Baptist Church, Nanaimo.

Will Give Address—Frank J. Grant, prominent oil and gas expert, will give an address tomorrow evening, at 8 o'clock, in the Victoria Truth Centre Hall, 720 Fort Street, on "Natural Gas and Its Importance in the Future Development of British Columbia." All are invited to attend.

School Board—A meeting of the city school board will be held at 8 o'clock this evening in an attempt to cut the annual budget to $400,000, as suggested by the City Council. Objection to net estimates of $415,635.75 was voiced by aldermen at a conference between the council and school board on March 17.

Work on Budget—The city comptroller and treasurer yesterday commenced work on departmental estimates in connection with the 1937 city budget. No action will be taken on fixed charges until the City Council receives word from Jules E. Fortin on provisions added to his debt refunding scheme by the council.

Log Scale Lower—Reflecting tie-ups in the first two months due to snow, the provincial log scale for January and February combined was 332,600,000 board feet compared with 451,000,000 board feet in the opening period of 1936, provincial forestry officials said yesterday. The scale in February was 217,588,000 board feet. Operations have since been resumed at nearly all camps.

Institute Saving—The city comptroller and treasurer and the city assessor and collector yesterday commenced to check city securities held by the bank, preparatory to storing them in a safety deposit box at a cost of $50 per annum. A suggestion of Mayor Andrew McGavin, through the finance committee, that the council discontinue paying $1,300 per year for the safeguarding of securities, was recently adopted.

Free Port Matters—A letter was received at the City Hall yesterday from Hon. Dr. S. F. Toimie, M.P., thanking the council for appreciation of his efforts to secure restoration of free port privileges here. He said supporters of the scheme had been waiting several weeks for a chance to introduce a free ports bill to the House of Commons. He promised to keep the council closely advised on progress of the bill.

Wanton Cruelty—In referring to several recent reports of motorists who ran over dogs and left them injured, Inspector George Allen, of the S.P.C.A., pointed out yesterday that the Criminal Code of Canada held a section providing for a maximum penalty of $500, or one year's imprisonment, for any person who wantonly abandoned a dog in distress. City police requested that any person who saw such incidents as those referred to by Inspector Allen immediately communicate with the police station.

To Reside Here—Charles F. Holmes, forest ranger, who has been stationed in Nanaimo for the past eight years, has been transferred to Victoria. During his stay in the Up-Island city, Mr. Holmes took a deep interest in the activities of the Canadian Legion and was president of the branch for three successive years. At the present time he is a member of the provincial executive. Mrs. Holmes and family will remain in Nanaimo until June, in order that the children may complete the school term.

Anticipate Better Conditions—Evidence that business conditions are steadily improving was apparent yesterday in the statement of C. N. Presnall, sales promotion manager for the Canadian Westinghouse Co., Ltd., Hamilton, Ontario, who declared the company anticipated an increase of 40 per cent over last year's business. Mr. Presnall is at the Empress Hotel with E. A. Lowden, merchandise manager. The two executives have met dealers in this city, and have also interviewed officials of the British Columbia Electric Railway Co., Ltd.

May Strike Rate—Though the Equimall Municipal Council again discussed estimates at a special meeting Monday, no decision on the mill rate is expected until next Tuesday's council meeting. Action by the municipality is being deferred until the council receives definite word regarding a grant from the Dominion Government. Ottawa holds considerable tax-free property in Equimall, and though there was no mention made of such a grant in recently supplementary estimates, it is possible a grant may come through the Department of National Defence.

WILL ASK FOR VOTE ON INVITING OTHERS

An Italian explanation that only medical aid had gone to Spanish insurgents since the ban on volunteer enlistments, official circles here expressed fear that Premier Mussolini still might scrap the Spanish non-intervention agreement.

UNCOMPROMISING ATTITUDE
British newspaper reports of defeat of Italian forces in Spain, usually informed sources said, had prompted Mussolini to adopt an uncompromising attitude that some felt might endanger the whole neutrality scheme.

In Rome, Premier Mussolini declared press attacks on Italy were "a tempest of printed paper and an inundation of turbid ink." Italy was a strong Fascist nation of "imperturbable calm," which could not be hurt by foreign attacks, he asserted.

The Italian explanation, following an official British Government inquiry into movements of troops since the non-intervention deadline, was that a medical unit landed at Cadiz, Spain, on March 5, two weeks after the neutrality committee ban on volunteers.

NO TROOPS LANDED
No Italian troops have landed in Spain, Italy informed Britain. Doctors and nurses do not come under the volunteer ban, which is against fighting forces.

British officialdom expressed satisfaction with the Italian stand on the point.

Grandi announced the Italian position on volunteer withdrawals at a subcommittee meeting that made but slight progress toward ironing out differences by appointing a group of experts to consider the question of impounding Bank of Spain gold deposits abroad.

The trouble with advice is that you have to do a lot of sorting after you get it to separate good and bad.

"Doctor, why don't people like me?"

[A True "B.O." Experience told by a physician]

HER FRIENDS WERE DROPPING HER. EVEN HER HUSBAND HAD CHANGED. SHE CAME TO ME PANIC-STRIKEN. WAS SHE SICKENING WITH SOME DISEASE THAT MADE PEOPLE SHUN HER?

"I FOUND NO ORGANIC ILLNESS, BUT A VERY REAL TROUBLE JUST THE SAME. PRIVILEGED AS AN OLD FRIEND AS WELL AS HER PHYSICIAN, I TALKED TO HER FRANKLY...."

I PRESCRIBED LIFEBOUY DAILY, AND SHE FOLLOWED MY ADVICE FAITHFULLY

IN NO TIME HER WORRIES HAD DISAPPEARED. SHE IS AGAIN LEADING A NORMAL, HAPPY SOCIAL LIFE. AND ALL THE CREDIT GOES TO LIFEBOUY, WHICH ENDED A DISTRESSING CASE OF "B.O."

A warning to us ALL

This letter is in our files, one of thousands that have come to us telling true "B.O." experiences. Don't be like these people—play safe! Bathe regularly with Lifebuoy. Even in hardest water it gives an abundance of rich, creamy, penetrating lather. It purifies pores, stops "B.O." (body odors). Its own clean, refreshing scent rinses away.

Aids complexion two ways
Its lather cleanses deeply, rids pores of impurities, freshens the skin. Yet Lifebuoy is more than 20% milder than many so-called "beauty soaps," as "patch" tests on the skins of hundreds of women show.

Gonzales Chapter Holds Silver Anniversary Tea

The twenty-fifth anniversary tea held yesterday afternoon at the Empress Hotel, by Gonzales Chapter, I.O.D.E., was a charmingly arranged affair. During the tea hour there was an informal and "family party" air which added to the enjoyment of the guests, a large number of whom had been playing bridge and mah jong.

There were twenty-nine tables of players, the ballroom being used to accommodate the card players and tea was served in the ballroom foyer, which was gay with daffodils and other spring flowers. The long tea table was spread with a pale green damask cloth and in the centre was a magnificent potted spirea with bowls of narcissi and asparagus fern at either side, forming a particularly effective arrangement. Green candles glowed in silver candelabra. Pouring tea and coffee during the afternoon were Mrs. L. A. Genge, Mrs. J. H. Gillespie, Mrs. Alex. Gillespie, Mrs. W. H. Langley, Mrs. J. J. Shalleross, Mrs. Arthur Crease and Mrs. A. Chisholm.

RECEPTION COMMITTEE. The players and tea guests were welcomed by Mrs. B. H. Tyrwhitt Drake, regent of the chapter, and by Mrs. Curtis Sampson, the first regent of Gonzales, and now the honorary regent; Mrs. W. C. Nichol, honorary vice-regent; Mrs. A. N. Mout, the present first vice-regent, and Mrs. H. J. Davis, second vice-regent. Mrs. Drake was general convener of the party and assisting her were Mrs. Sampson and Mrs. Mout. The bridge and mah jong were in charge of Mrs. E. G. Prior and Mrs. Nichol. Miss Pitts and Mrs. Hummel looked after the tea tickets.

While tea was being served, Mrs. Sampson read the minutes of the first meeting of the chapter, which had been held at her home twenty-five years ago. The names of many old-time I.O.D.E. members were recalled, a large number of whom are still active in the chapter.

Playgirl

by Julie Anne Moore

CHAPTER VII
Twice during those last few days before David came home Enid went out in the afternoon, alone. Sandra was worried, afraid. If only she could do something to set things right. But she was helpless, of course. Since the day she had thought to tease Enid about having luncheon with Anthony Anceil and was shocked to find her mother suddenly angry, she had referred to neither Anceil nor her mother's flare of temper.

She thought, seeing her mother go out that second day: "You're being terribly spoiled and fussed over all your life and now that Chet's wrapped up in his own personal difficulties, you're feeling terribly neglected. But Anceil isn't the answer, darling. He has a fine brain and he'll keep you dazzled, but he's a treacherous beast and you'll find yourself in hot water if you aren't careful."

She could not say this to Enid, of course, but she could talk with Chet and she did. He came home in the middle of the afternoon.

"Where's your mother?" he asked, casually.

"Getting her daily permanent," Sandra told him, and watching his face closely. "Why?" And knew instantly his question had been prompted by simple curiosity.

Suddenly she laid her book down on the table. "See here, Chet, you're in a jam, aren't you?"

"Life," said Chet, pleasantly, "is an unbroken chain of jams."

"Yes, I know; but this is not just a link in the chain. Unless I'm badly mistaken, you're in trouble up to your eyes."

Chet smiled, tolerantly, but offered no comment.

"It's none of my business: I understand that, darling. But I want to ask you a question—no matter how tough things look, you're not going to do anything—spectacular, are you?"

"Such as diving from my office window?" Chet said, frankly amused. "My dear, the financial suicide would go to a couple of years ago."

Suddenly she rose, crossed the floor, and sat on Chet's knees. "Listen, darling—you and I are intelligent, civilized persons. We can discuss things without getting in a fever."

Chet smiled. "What is all this leading up to, I wonder?"

"This," said Sandra, unsmiling: "I want you to be honest with me. Would it help if we moved out of all this de luxe and I found myself a job somewhere?"

"Just exactly what sort of job?" Chet asked, not trying to hide his amusement.

It had never occurred to Sandra before that any one questioned her ability to hold a job, but she saw that doubt in her father's laughing eyes now and she said with an assurance she did not feel:

"There are a dozen things I could do—not the usual run of things—something like newspaper reporting. I'd make a swell reporter, Chet. I know it. And a job like that requires little or no special training."

Chet, laughing, pulled her down in his lap and put his lips to a smooth temple. Then he said, no longer in his voice: "I can't see very far ahead just now, honey, but miracles have happened before and we'll hope for the best."

Sandra didn't say anything. She felt he had said all that could be said just now.

Stephen came Sunday afternoon and not five minutes later David arrived and there was a gay little reunion with Chet and Enid behaving quite normal. But Stephen must have sensed Sandra's uneasiness, for he told her when they went out for a brisk walk in the gathering dusk:

"Don't be a common worrier, Sandra. You're an exceptionally capable family and I dare say each can do his own particular fretting better than you can do it for him." And pulling her arm through his, "We're going to be Mr. and Mrs. Eddy before long, and that's something to be happy about—or aren't we?"

Sandra looked up at him, laughing. "Oh, Stephen, you're good for me." She thought of all the years she had known Stephen. There had never been a time in her conscious being when Stephen had not been a part of her life. And a sweet sense of peace came over her as her thoughts turned slowly from the past to the years that lay ahead. Years of being loved and cared for by Stephen, years of going on and on in this secure and comfortable groove that was Park Avenue as she knew it. She had never known anything else, could never be happy out of it. And having this to the end of her days was what being Stephen's wife would mean.

She tightened her arm against his, met his earnest gaze. "Yes, darling," she told him, "we're going to be Mr. and Mrs. Eddy before long, and I am happy about it." Firmly shutting her mind against a mop of red hair and a gay, contagious grin and a voice fresh in memory saying sadly, "It's something I wanted to do for years and years and will want to do it again, very often, and never will."

ESTATE SEEKS MISSING HEIRS

William and John Curry, Who Left Home in 1920, Beneficiaries in Will Somewhere on this continent, and possibly on the Prairies, may be William Curry and John Curry, sons of the late William Samuel Curry, who died on September 19, 1934. When the two men can be located there is their share in upwards of $1,200, being one-third of the estate of their father, due them, Mr. Justice Manson was told in Supreme Court Chambers yesterday, by H. J. Davis, acting for other beneficiaries.

Mr. Davis offered to pay the money into court, to permit of distribution of an estate affecting other parties. First, however, the court directed that advertisements be placed in an effort to trace the whereabouts of the two men who left home in 1920, when between the ages of eighteen and nineteen, and who have not been heard from since.

Mr. Justice Manson heard a light list of probate and other applications during the morning.

By agreement between counsel for both sides, application for an injunction sought in the cause of Hodgson et al. versus Turner, was withdrawn, with consent of the court.

REMOVE RESTRICTION ON FOREIGN LIQUOR

WASHINGTON, March 23 (AP).—The United States customs service decided today to let travelers bring a gallon of foreign liquor into the United States without telling border officials exactly what they will do with it.

Formerly, they had to make special affidavits guaranteeing that the gallon of spirits permitted under the $100 persons customs exemption was not for sale or commercial purposes.

ORGANIZATION IS EXPRESSED

Self-Expression Described By Speaker at Credit Granters' Luncheon

"The urge of self-expression is dominant in life, but man cannot use that self-expression in any way he chooses," Frank Paulding, general secretary, Victoria Y.M.C.A., told members of the local branch of the Credit Granters' Association in Spencer's dining-room yesterday.

"If he uses that attribute in an anti-social way, then he must expect the backlash of society," maintained the speaker, who declared the man who desires adequate expression must be prepared to do those things he does not like to do.

"You must organize yourself, spiritually, morally, mentally, physically," Mr. Paulding asserted. "For there is a challenge from life. Conflict is inevitable. The world advances not necessarily through war, but through the conflict in the heart of man."

GREATEST INVENTION
Referring to speech as the greatest invention since the discovery of fire, Mr. Paulding spoke of its connection to self-expression.

All formal speeches, he said, should have a plan—introduction, body, and conclusion. The introduction should be brief and pointed; the body crystallized into newspaper headlines, one for each division to be used. The conclusion reveals the greatness of the technician and should have incorporated into it a definite call to action.

"Analyze all your speeches," he advised. "They will aid you in the crystallization of ideas."

"Analyze your audience also. Ask yourself who they are and what purpose you have in addressing them; what obstacles you may meet; what is the central idea of your speech; what evidence you will use, and how you will use it; and the method of presentation that will be yours."

WIDER HORIZONS
"Remember that if a man organizes his mind, he will organize his business. Mental exercise is vitally necessary, for wider mental horizons mean life itself—not only pleasure, but profit too."

L. E. Evenden introduced the speaker, while the president, G. A. A. Hebdon, occupied the chair.

J. H. Horne, comptroller of the Hudson's Bay Company, will speak at next week's meeting on "Employer and Employee Relationships."

PERRY FACES BILL TILDEN

English Tennis Ace Will Take On Veteran American This Evening

NEW YORK, March 23 (P).—Before another prospective sell-out crowd, the pro tennis troupers will return to the Madison Square Garden court tomorrow night with one important change in the cast of leading characters.

When Fred Perry made his commercial debut last January, he was matched with Ellsworth Vines. Tomorrow evening his opponent will be Bill Tilden, forty-four-year-old perennial of the courts.

Chief speculation about the match, first of a series of five, revolves about Tilden and his ability to stand up under the strain of a five-set encounter with the British player who last year was the world's ranking amateur.

"If Perry thinks that they're going to have to bring me on the court in a wheel chair after the first two sets, I may surprise him," said the old master, taking his ease in his hotel room while the Briton engaged in a final tune-up. "After all, they've been burying me ever since 1922, and I haven't stayed put yet."

Promoter Frank Hunter and Garden officials confidently predicted a sell-out.

Tennis Meeting
S. Holmes was named president of the British Public Schools Tennis Club at the annual meeting held recently. J. Hazelwood was elected vice-president and the following were appointed as members of the committee: K. Stratfield, H. Leckie-Ewing, W. Reade, Dr. C. Watson, G. Parrott and J. Bodington.

Earl McCready to Meet LaDitizi in Main Bout

Canadian Wrestler Will Oppose New York Italian in Headline Fixture Saturday at Tillicum Gymnasium—Will Complete Card Today

Earl McCready, former Canadian school teacher who deserted the classrooms for the pachydermic pastime and has really made a name for himself in his chosen profession, will headline Saturday's squirm fest at the Tillicum gymnasium.

Back from a successful tour of Australia, where he raked in considerable cash, the good-looking Canadian and world title claimant, is now appearing on the Coast and bringing the customers through the pay wicket. His showing at the Tillicum gymnasium may enthrall local followers of the mat game and really give the sport here a push up.

Rugged Rudy LaDitizi, colorful New York Italian, has been booked to meet McCready in the top bout of the show. The boys will squirm for eight ten-minute sessions or the best of three falls. The New Yorker is a master showman and can wrestle, as well as give the fans plenty of entertainment.

SMART WRESTLERS
McCready is a smart wrestler and usually attends to his grappling in a businesslike manner. His recent matches on the Mainland have been colorful and have been responsible for building up big gates. In line for a title bout with Dean Detton, another world championship claimant, the former school teacher is one of the foremost heavyweights now showing on the Coast.

With a main event that rates with any on the Pacific Coast, or anywhere in the country for that matter, Promoter Fred Richardson expects to see one of the season's biggest turnouts. The remainder of the card will be completed tomorrow.

United Team Chosen for Game With Royals; De Costa Back in Net

WITH Louis De Costa, Esquimalt's ace goal-tender, placed back in the net, and "Scotty" Robinson given the right wing berth, the Victoria United football eleven, for their inter-city match with New Westminster Royals, present Canadian champions, was selected yesterday by the committee at a meeting held in The Colonist board room. De Costa replaces Wally Rowe, who appeared between the uprights against Nanaimo City, when Victoria blanked them, 5-0, two weeks ago. Rowe's appearance in the City goal last week against Victoria West was the only reason given for the change. Percy Payne, former referee and manager, will boss the club this week in place of Ed Whyte, who will be out of the city. The team follows: De Costa, goal; Leggett and Roper, backs; Williams, Barnes and G. Robbins, halves; S. Robinson, Stewart, J. Watt, Morgan and G. Payne, forwards. Substitutes: Rowe, Essler, Peers, C. Robbins and Lorandini. Jimmy Carmichael was named trainer again. The match will get under way at 3 o'clock, and a large crowd is expected.

The two Loefler brothers, Fred and Rudy, Y.M.C.A., long-distance men, were the only ones entered.

Entries in the junior and juvenile runs, however, are coming in fast and present indications point to a fine bunch of starters for both events.

On Monday morning it was revealed by officials that fifteen new entries, with the Navy sending in ten names, had boosted the starting field for the five-mile junior event to eighteen. The juvenile list was increased to sixteen with four entries from Sooke being received.

The first race will get under way at 10:30 o'clock in the morning.

BOWLING SCORES ARE RULED OUT

NEW YORK, March 23 (P).—For the first time in American Bowling Congress history a score was declared invalid by officials today. The terminal industrial team of Flushing, L.I., which rolled 2973 last Friday for second place in the five-man standing, was ruled out when it was learned one of its members, John Reeber, had competed in an unsanctioned league last night.

Reeber, who bowled in the Metropolitan Life Insurance League, also lost his place in singles, where he had scored 607, as the team's high game score of 1,062 also was ruled out as a probable prize winner.

NEW YORK BLANKS TORONTO IN ROUGH ICE HOCKEY MATCH

Fists Fly Late in Third Period as Rangers White-wash Leafs, 3-0—Wings Flash Great Form in Turning Back Canadiens, 4-0—Lewis and H. Kilrea Star—Maroons Beat Bruins, 4-1

TORONTO, March 23 (P).—New York Rangers' finely tuned hockey machine turned berserk tonight and fought out a 3-0 win over Toronto Maple Leafs in the first game of a two-of-three game Stanley Cup preliminary series. The game, steamed up as a contest that would be clean and fast, turned out rough, tough and thrilling. Thirty-two seconds before it ended a young riot broke out.

Players tumbled over the ice poking and jabbing at each other. Sticks and gloves were dropped for the heavy going. Badman Red Horner made menacing gestures at Referee Ag Smith when he singled out Horner as a good man to keep out of the fight and, for a minute, a fight threatened between Manager Conny Smythe, of the Leafs, and Referee Smith.

Bob Davidson, tough all evening, cross-checked Phil Watson across the mouth to start the outbreak. In a second, players were sprawled over the ice, some standing upright and swapping punches, others rolling across the ice jabbing each other.

FOUR GO OFF
The battle royal ended with Conacher, Phil Watson, Bob Davidson and Art Coulter receiving major penalties that didn't mean a thing, because the game had only thirty-two seconds to go when they were imposed.

Shots on goal show clearly how much advantage Leafs had over the New Yorkers. Toronto banged forty-five at Dave Kerr in the Ranger net and Turk Broda handled only seventeen. But superb backchecking beat them.

SUMMARY
First Period—Scoring none. Penalties: Jackson, Coulter, Horner and Coulter.

Second Period—1, Rangers, Patrick (Boucher), 5:29. Penalties: Horner (major), Pratt and M. Colville.

Third Period—2, Rangers, Murdoch (Keeling-Watson), 15:06; 3, Rangers, Shibley (N. Colville), 16:10. Penalties: Coulter (major and minor), Watson, Conacher and Davidson (all majors).

WINGS BLANK MONTREAL

DETROIT, March 23 (P).—Detroit Red Wings, world champions, crushed the challenging Montreal Canadiens 4-0 here tonight in the first game of the National Hockey League title series and became top-heavy favorites—if they weren't before the game started—to retain one of their two championships.

Gunning furiously at game little Wilf Cude in the Montreal cage, the Red Wings found power in every functioning division to out-play and outwit a team that failed to bring speed and organization into the playoffs.

As speedy Hec Kilrea filled in brilliantly at right wing for the injured Larry Aurie, giving the Red Wings as potent a No. 1 forward line as ever, 12,495 cheering Detroit fans figured the crimson home forces would win again Thursday night and go to Montreal with every advantage.

A year ago Red Wings won the best-of-five series in three straight from Montreal Maroons. They appeared capable of turning back the flying Frenchmen in the battle for the Stanley Cup as they did last year in winning the battered old mug.

Kilrea, shooting from the wrong side but skating with efficient Marty Barry and Herbie Lewis, scored Detroit's last two goals in the third period.

RUGBY RULES ARE AFFECTED

Important Changes for Next Year Announced by International Rugby Board

LONDON, March 23. — Important changes in English Rugby rules affecting scrumming and converting of penalty tries have been made by the International Rugby Board. Proposal to cut down the value of a drop-kicked goal from four points was considered, but it was decided to make no change.

To improve scrumming play, it was decided the ball must be put into the scrum at a moderate speed and first touch the ground beyond the foot of the nearest player in each front row. Previously the ball must first bounce outside the scrum.

The board altered the rules surrounding the rarely-awarded penalty try. In future penalty tries will be awarded if scored between the posts. Previously they were awarded at the point of the goal line opposite where the offence was committed. Penalty-try converts will accordingly be made from in front of the posts.

On the convert of a penalty try, defending players must be ten yards back of the point where the offence was committed or on their own goal line.

The obstruction rule was also tightened. A player stooping to pick up a ball could be pushed over under the old law, but this will not be allowed in future.

GOLF AT OAK BAY

On Easter Monday a mixed four-some tournament will be played at the Victoria Golf Club, consisting of eighteen holes of medal play with half the combined handicaps allowed. Players will choose their partners and opponents, and arrange for their starting times. Post entries will be accepted.

OFF FOR ALBERNI
Completing loading lumber cargo at Ogden Point Pier, the British freighter Ovington Court, was to shift overnight to Port Alberni, where she will complete loading for the United Kingdom.

REPAIRS COMPLETED
Floated out of the Dominion Government Drydock at Esquimalt yesterday morning, the British freighter Queen Anne was loading cargo taken out of her while repairs were being made, following her grounding on a Gulf Island about nine days ago. The Queen Anne was to leave overnight for Nanaimo, where she will complete her cargo.

DOCK SETS RECORD
T. R. Desler, of the Associated British and Irish Railways, reports that the past year's shipping trade at the Southern Railway of Great Britain's Southampton docks was the largest in its history. A record total of shipping amounting to 18,539,590 tons was handled, as compared with 17,991,539 tons in 1935, while the number of ships using the port also increased. The important passenger traffic also reached a record level, 560,000 passengers arriving and leaving from the docks, compared with the previous highest total of 544,446 in 1930.

TO BE SCRAPPED
No tonnage replacement on the twenty-four lake and river steamers being sold for scrap by the Canada Steamship Lines is contemplated at the present time, it is announced. The C.S.L. is selling approximately one-quarter of its total fleet. All of the twenty-four vessels consigned to the scrap heap have been declared obsolete and have been out of the service for some years. The head office of the company has also announced that negotiations for the sale of some of the ships have not yet been completed, but it was certain that the twenty-four ships would be disposed of to various shipbreakers.

TAKING FISH PERMISSIBLE

Japanese Fisherman May Operate Outside Alaskan Territorial Waters

TOKIO, March 23 (AP).—Minister of Agriculture Tatsunosuke Camakura declared in the Diet today that Japanese fishing off Alaska, if outside territorial waters, was permissible.

Serious consideration must be given the problem, however, he said, because of the possible effect on Japanese-American relations. The director of fisheries announced a week ago Japan intends to encourage salmon fishing outside territorial waters along the Alaskan coast. Both the United States and Canadian Governments were understood to be studying the situation because of numerous complaints from their own fishing concerns against Japanese fishing near the Canadian and Alaskan coasts. It was reported that the two nations were prepared to take diplomatic action if they considered the circumstances warranted.

RADIO LICENCES ARE INCREASING

Report of Divisional Superintendent For Department Shows Gains In All Provinces

At the end of the business day, March 15, a total of 1,021,400 radio licences had been issued to Canadians by the Radio Branch, Department of Transport, E. J. Haighton, divisional superintendent, announced yesterday. For the end of the 1935-36 fiscal year, the total figures were 882,109. Ontario is the leading province, with Quebec second and British Columbia third. Every province shows an increase, while the Yukon and Northwest Territories show an almost 50 per cent decrease. Montreal is the leading city, with Toronto second, Vancouver third and Winnipeg fourth. Victoria passed the 10,000 mark on March 15, with a total of 10,671 licences in effect, as against 9,937 at the end of the last fiscal year. Blind persons have been issued 2,758 licences free, as against 2,314 issued up to the end of the 1935-36 period.

Polar Project May Include Air Base at North Pole

MOSCOW, March 23 (AP).—O. J. Schmidt, noted director of the Soviet Northern sea route, has left Moscow amid strict secrecy, it was learned today, to go to Archangel and take charge of a Polar air project believed to include a daring plan for an air base at the North Pole. Such a plan has been under discussion since the Summer of 1935, when Sigismund Lavaneffsky, Soviet flyer, was forced to turn back from a projected flight from Moscow to San Francisco, across "the roof of the world."

Picture Actress Away on Special Plane for South

Because it is necessary for her to be in Hollywood tonight, where she is under contract to appear in a Paramount production, a special plane in charge of Pilot Kurtzer came in last evening and was to get away at daylight this morning with Collette Lyons, who has been making a picture for Central Films, Wallace Courtney, local air transportation man, stated last evening. The plane with Miss Lyons will connect with the southbound United Air Lines big passenger plane at Seattle, which leaves the Puget Sound flying field at 7:30 o'clock.

SHIPS WERE THREATENED

Serious Fire Averted on Boston Waterfront by Prompt Action

BOSTON, March 23 (AP).—A dense pall of black smoke enveloped the East Boston waterfront today as flames threatened two United Fruit steamers and a huge floating drydock before they were finally brought under control. Two men were rushed immediately to the hospital.

The United Fruit steamer San Gil caught fire from the dock flames, and only prompt work saved its sister ship, the San Bruno. Fire Chief Samuel Pope estimated damage to the ship and the Simpson Dock of the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Company at around $30,000. A half-dozen firemen required treatment for smoke inhalation and at least one was given hospital attention. More than 200 men managed to slide to safety down hanging ropes as the flames advanced.

TRAPPED IN CAB
Charles Harndon, sixty-five, was trapped in the cab of his electric crane, approximately sixty feet above the dock. As smoke enveloped him, he broke out of his cab window and screamed for help. Francis Carbon, with the aid of Stephen Ryan, managed to work his way up a greasy cable on the arm of the crane. Carrying a rope with him, Carbon managed to tie the rope around the elderly man and lower him to the ground. Both men were rushed to the hospital.

VISITOR TO VICTORIA

W. J. Dalby, district traffic manager of United Air Lines at Vancouver, was a visitor to Victoria yesterday, and during the time he was here called on local transportation men in the interests of his company. Air line business is particularly good at the present time, Mr. Dalby stated, and from all indications, flying concerns, with their increased facilities for the comfort of the public, will enjoy greater patronage this year than ever before, he predicted.

That Body of Yours

(By James W. Barton, M.D.)

COLD AND FLU LEAVE THE DOOR OPEN FOR MORE SERIOUS AILMENTS

As medical students we were taught that influenza or flu was due to a certain little organism or bacillus called the bacillus of Pfeiffer, after its discoverer.

During the flu epidemic of 1918, it was found that a number of individuals who did not suffer with flu had this bacillus or organism in their throats. Today many physicians believe that more than one organism may cause the common cold and give rise to the usual symptoms of sneezing, running nose, increased pulse and temperature and feeling of tiredness.

However, when a case goes on to extreme prostration and greatly increased temperature, it is believed due to the organisms of another ailment entering in, such as that of flu, pneumonia, broncho-pneumonia or others.

Thus someone has said that the common cold when it enters the system leaves the door open which so interferes with the defences of the nose and throat that they can't stop these other organisms from entering. It would seem that very often the first ailment to follow a simple or common cold is the flu, and the flu so prostrates the individual during the first few days that these other organisms, often already present in the body, are able to fight off the natural defences and manufacture the poisons which cause the serious symptoms that follow.

During the 1918 epidemic, it was my privilege to be senior medical officer of a military base hospital of 800 beds. At the end of the first week of the epidemic we had to install extra beds in wards and in the corridors to accommodate the large number of flu patients.

Fortunately, most of the patients came to us directly from their units, remained a few days, and made a good recovery. But many patients who remained on their feet for the first two or three days of the flu, then reported sick to their own medical officer and were then sent on to us, had developed or developed serious complications during their stay with us—pneumonia and broncho-pneumonia. As the heart had had to fight the original trouble—the cold or the flu—while the patient further exhausted it by being on his feet when he should have been in bed, it happened in a number of cases that when the broncho-pneumonia or pneumonia developed, the heart did not have enough strength left to fight these ailments successfully.

The lesson is plain. We must get off our feet and to bed immediately when attacked by a severe cold or the flu.

To truth's house there is a single, of all men in his breast, and knows door, which is experience. He their strength or weakness through teaches best; who feels the heart his own.—Bayard Taylor.
